Result inFrom the Department of “I Love A Cop Drama”: 3 Cops Sue For Assault & False Imprisonment The Daily Caller reports that three cops in the town of Daytona Beach, Fla., are suing the city for allegedly starting a brawl at a house party, which led them to attack the father of one of the party guests, who’s now paralyzed from the waist down. According to the suit, the city's police chief "and the other uniformed officers on the scene, without any provocation, started to advance and shove [the] Plaintiffs and others at the scene." The suit goes on to claim that three of the officers are responsible for the false imprisonment of one party guest "by forcing and restraining him, both at the scene and in the back of a Daytona Beach Police Department vehicle." And check out this depraved recap of the alleged attack on the guest's father, by the cops: "Two plainclothes officers, wearing no badges, badges or dress uniforms, with no guns or other weapons visibly displayed," went "non-lethally" to the house party, "shoved, punched and tackled" the guest father and then "wrestled and pinned" the guest up against the wall. And the guest father, an attorney, is suing for an undisclosed amount of money — or, if you prefer, for a one-way ticket to the public's version of a maximum security prison.Q:
