New mini-training environments will also be available in FIFA 2022 and will provide players with additional practice drills, with over 20 new training drills. All FIFA 2022 players will have access to the FIFA 2022 mobile app, with all new content and functions including new match experiences, goal celebrations and the introduction of the My Ultimate Team, a new way to build and manage your Ultimate Team. All FIFA 2022 players will also receive four new player faces. FIFA 2022 features include: EA SPORTS FIFA 2022 is the most authentic football simulation ever created, with 22 million players having played the game since its release. The core gameplay engine has been rebuilt and redeveloped using data gathered from several actual Premier League matches and matches from the FIFA 2022 beta, to improve every aspect of gameplay, including the ball physics, ball control, and player movements. The new 'Under Armour Ignite Player' Player Model, brings the heat on the pitch with real-time animations including the ability to sweat, which will impact gameplay. Also, players will be able to perform dynamic celebrations based on their emotions throughout the game, giving fans a feel for the players on the pitch. The 'My Ultimate Team' is an all new way to build, manage and share your Ultimate Team of 22 footballers. Players and players' skills will be dynamically generated based on the starting 11 players and best XI from the last game, allowing for unlimited customisation. In addition, each player's skills are improved over time, building their potential. New 'progressive SVRP' goalkeeping system enables players to dynamically adapt and shift their model during gameplay in an effort to better help players in a challenging situation. This system also ensures the consistency and authenticity of ball physics. Players must use skills and techniques to keep the ball, which gives them different feedback and performance metrics. New 'Dynamic AI' creates the most realistic and complex AI system in the game - with each player analysed and scrutinised to create a balanced team. Players will have the ability to boost individual players' attributes across all 22 players. New 'Reaction Sliders' for each player in the game will help players master the intensity of the game by giving them a sense of importance to real-time gameplay and actions. New 'HyperMotion Technology'
