(This tragedy is detailed in the book "The Altamont Fillmore: The RollingRockCultural Revolution In The 1960s and 1970s"). The Altamont Mystery Bus, as it will be noted, was a planned, state-of-the-art, $100,000 multimedia, fan event being planned by Freund on a scale unparalleled in rock music history. What is described by the Wikipedia as the "most infamous concert of all time" began at 8:30pm on that fateful day. I was in that classic 1959 Dorsey Le Seur "Blue Angel"-looking (remember that?) bus, and rode it to and from the Altamont Speedway for the completion of the program. When I returned home late on that day
