For some reason I am having difficulties identifying the flavor of the cake. I have had it many times and it has a brand that I don't recognize. It is light, moist, kind of has a honey flavor that I love. But it is not a basic honey cake. Any ideas of what brand I am describing? I would love to try this again. Lynn -----Original Message-----

Williams, Jason R (Credit); Kitchen, Louise; Pollard, David Subject: I received an e-mail from Sarah Buhr at V&E with what I think is our most important issue. We are down about $13 million from last week in terms of earnings in 2000. The only way for us to get that money back is if we can see the floor price for the gas come down. Right now we are going to have to put about $6 million into the CD for next year. Sarah is going to try to get a meeting with Exxon Mobile this week. We are trying to decide if we should offer to trade 10,000mm for the gas back and issue a nymex check to them at $2.05mm for a term deal. There is $4 million of gas sitting out there (10,000mm) that we don't know where it is located.
Before I can respond to this e-mail I need to know that this gas is really in our control. Thanks JDS
