I'm only learning to fly and so I'm learning my movement as I go. I have improved a lot in that regard but I've been losing my technique as I learn how to fly. Today I managed to lose more time learning. I spent a few hours at the airfield and only managed to get 2.5 miles done while watching the others fly. On a 2,000lb. GCA I can easily control the airship with a yaw rate of 0.4 rad/s and a pitch of 1.2 rad/s. I'm not sure how much more that I could get out of it as in that pitch it started getting difficult for
