The Krank Act: a rap album in one shot!As you choose your favorite songs you are ranking your friends and telling them why they should listen as well, eventually all of them will be completely devoid of life and their souls will be ripped from their bodies and sent to a black hole. "Beers, Bulls & Bush" by Diesel took first prize for best album in a contest that was sponsored by the magazine 'GIGZINE'. Besides the artists, you get lots of exclusive rarities and unreleased tracks. Limited to 300 copies. Available only at K7 Records. The sound of quiet space The sound of quiet spaceBlack holes have killed in the outer space for billions of years. Since then, there were no more stars or planets. The emptiness of space is different from the emptiness of the sky. You might wonder if it could have been filled with stars and planets in the future, but it's not likely. The only way to "fill" the space is by listening to some music. I have been recording ambient and electronic music for more than four years, but I always get more ideas after the release. Perhaps many people have a similar problem? Maybe that's why there are so many music producers and so many music albums every year. Many people like to listen to the music by it's producer. And if you are the type of person who likes to have to sound of quiet space, you have to hear the new album from the German producer 'Dark Nekromantik'. It's a very powerful and hypnotic album. Available only at K7 Records. Rana From the Nordic countries comes the vocalist Rana. She was born in Norway in 1990. She started to play instruments at the age of five and knew she wanted to sing even before she started school. She is now working on her debut album that will be released in 2007. I was lucky enough to get a cool and unique gift from my Secret Santa. I was so amazed that I nearly forgot to post it here! While the train door was still open waiting on the Dublin Airport Shuttle to show up, I walked over to the book exchange. I had asked for a good book that I could read on a plane. The clerk told me that I would have to return an hour later. I left the airport and went straight home. I didn't even have the time to stop at the mall to get something to read. I was home for a few hours but must admit that I was completely overwhelmed and was not able to concentrate very well on anything. I started to feel the effects of the sedative that I took before taking the 5 hour flight. I couldn't help but notice the excess amounts of noise in the halls as I was preparing to head out the door again to pick up my gift from the book exchange. I was greeted by an amazing sight. Among all the sad and downtrodden looking faces of the other passengers were the bright and cheery faces of a group of 3 passengers chatting and laughing just as they had in the Dublin Airport Terminal. What was even better were the 2 kids, one being no more than 10 years old, and another around 5, either side of an older couple. The older kid, the one who was nearly double the size of the other, looked delighted to see my family. The story was that he and the 3 ladies, all in their 20s, all had the same
