A: If your versions are on the same architecture, and you are working in the same folder, you can try copying the sound.Afs file to the same directory, and running the game again. This worked for me. Alana Araujo alana.araujo@indystar.com On Thursday, Indiana House Speaker Brian Bosma told The Indiana Gazette he had no idea whether he would be able to get a vote on a proposal to combine Indiana's five liquor control boards into one statewide board. The IndyStar had reported that Rep. Ryan Dvorak, a Republican from South Bend, was working on a plan to form a new agency that would control liquor licenses statewide. The House was going to be out of session on Thursday, and Bosma said he had no idea whether the House would return to session on Monday. Bosma told The Indiana Gazette he was "surprised and very disappointed" by Dvorak's announcement. "I think it is very troubling," Bosma said, saying that it was "extremely premature" to discuss the impact of the proposal. 'The system is broken' On Tuesday, Dvorak announced he had reached an agreement with five Democrats to form a working group to address the state's liquor control board system. He said his working group would include attorneys, former government officials and an economic development expert. "I think we've got the right people to look at this problem and figure out what the right solution would be," Dvorak told The Indianapolis Star. Dvorak said the state's liquor control system is out of date and is designed for Indiana's pre-Prohibition days, when many of the state's cities and towns didn't have separate liquor boards. Dvorak cited some questionable behavior by liquor store owners including underage drinking on school property, underage and even adult drinking in cars, nuisance problems at sports bars and drinking in parks. Dvorak said the working group would eventually come up with a proposal for revamping the agency but would not be able to release it before the legislative session ends on Monday. What's next? State House rules say the House would be able to hold a final debate on Monday without a formal vote. Senate rules, however, say the Senate must vote on any debate on the matter to ensure that it has the authority to Recent Posts That's the reason why i pay attention to football news.. and also why i believe that it is getting more and more interesting.. just a month ago i did a big search for football news.. on the internet.. and i came across the wikipedia information about golden share trade.. also about the british football league. Then i looked a little bit deeper.. i found out that the owner of the british football league is the sportscorp ltd (archived). Then i began to find out more about the history of the british football league.. There are some who don't believe that the british football league is nothing else but a sports league that is a part of the ingame world of Fifa.. But i think that's not true.. I found out that the british football league is a sports league that took place in the world of Fifa since the 19th century. And it was the first league in the world of Fifa after the second world war. In the world of Fifa the british football league plays now in tier 3 and tier 4.. In tier 3 the british football league is the third or fourth best league in the world of Fifa. In tier 4 it is the fifth best league in the world of Fifa. The main task of the british football league is to develop football in england and to create a suitable stadium environment for football. The british football league don't want to win the world cup itself.. The british football league wants to win the best national team in england The british football league is one of the biggest and most important football leagues in england. First of all let's take a look at the founding year of the british football league. After the war in 1945 there was big need for football. And that's where the british football league was born. You can find out more about the british football league at wikipedia.
