Features New Career Mode The 25-year-old returned to the pitch, but his heart wasn't fully in it as he fought off heavy cardiovascular issues. During his time off, he spent time watching his son play soccer and returned to the game as his career hit a crossroads. With a new sense of determination, he returned to training more and more, and when he was finally able to play, he found himself in an ideal situation. Everton had been promoted to the Premier League the year prior, and now was the time to show what he could do in English football. He had a good first season with the Toffees, winning the FA Cup and scoring in the final. Promoted to the top flight, he struggled to maintain his form, but was able to attract the attention of some of Europe's biggest clubs. It was a bc9d6d6daa
