BotBrawl is a tactical simulation game where you control a group of easily controllable bots in a fight against other players. There is no right or wrong way to play, but you can choose between two roles: The leader or the follower. The leader can move freely in the free for all arena, get into fights and destroy other bots. On his or her death, he or she may assign himself or herself a follower, who will be given all the options of the leader, but he or she will be limited to the arena, cannot move and can't attack. The free for all Arena A free for all arena is a place in the game where you are the only bot. On a free for all arena you can choose to be the leader or the follower, depending on your choice, you may also change your role later. The Arena is your home base in BotBrawl, here you can team up with other players to make a team. The Arena will be upgraded over time, giving you more new and exciting features. Easy to learn, but hard to master. The game is written for a wide range of people, the beginners will be able to learn the basics in no time and the veterans will appreciate the attention to detail. Don't get caught in the Crowd. BotBrawl is a multiplayer game, where you and up to seven bots will fight against the computer in a free for all arena. The closer you are to the computer the more computer bots you will be facing. There is no real rank system, and there is no "better" bot, every bot is equally good. So can't you avoid the Crowd? BotBrawl contains a variety of bots, ranging from melee bots to bots with only basic mechanics. In the next update, we'll add more bots. Help your mate, fight together! If you find a bot in trouble, you can either kill the enemy bot using your own weapons or can help the bot to kill the enemy and get a reward for it. If you help a bot kill the enemy, you will receive a reward, it will be gained in the score. In BotBrawl you have three essential arms. All the bots in BotBrawl are able to equip a weapon which will be used to attack and kill bots. Some bots are melee bots, with melee weapons you will be able to slay the bots at Vampire: The Masquerade – Bloodlines is a dark, atmospheric single-player first-person shooter, which tells the story of a citizen of Seattle, Ricky Pierce, who gets lured by an agent of the sinister Brujeria in order to uncover the truth behind his family’s mysterious past. Vampire: The Masquerade – Bloodlines is an award-winning 1998 RPG/Action-adventure video game developed by Robin Miller and published by Eidos Interactive (now Square Enix). Based on the tabletop RPG of the same name, the game is set in a dark universe and tells the story of a Seattle resident named Ricky Pierce. After his mother and brother are killed during a botched drug deal, Ricky vows to avenge his family’s death and exact his revenge on the dealers who supposedly murdered them. The game was released on August 21st, 1998 for PC, Xbox, PlayStation, and Sega Saturn. It received critical acclaim and is considered one of the greatest action-adventure games ever made. To reveal the truth behind his family’s past, Ricky Pierce decides to investigate the murder of his brother Ricky was said to have died in the line of duty as a police officer. The only lead that Ricky has is an urban legend regarding a creature called a Nosferatu. Through a chance encounter with the strange and beautiful Fawn Asta, he finds himself at the centre of a conspiracy involving not only the Triad, but also the Brujeria. Along his journey, Ricky learns the truth behind his family, as well as some pretty important revelations about his own past. Is it really good or just awesome? Is it worth it? Well, you know me, I'm easy to read. So, for anyone who is interested in the game, I'm going to give you some of the game reviews I read prior to the release of the game, as well as my own impressions. After all, this game is special, right? (I may reference some of these before.)

The Good: Nice world and atmosphere Great story Excellent action and shooting mechanics Deep character system Fantastic world Beautiful environment Definitely, a must-play for fans

The Bad: Poor execution A bit short Genre specific Liked? Dislike? Before I go into describing my game experience in detail

The game is a 24-level puzzle game with a unique gameplay that is absolutely suitable for both solitary players and those who play with partners. The game allows you to play solitaire in a style of a real match on the sunny beaches. Each level is split into 3 stages, so you should collect enough money to complete all 3 stages of the level. Each stage includes 10 levels, and the number of goals that can be reached on each stage is slightly different. The first stage is intended to train the players since there is no money on it. But don't worry, you will get some money at the end of the stage, as all points earned during the stage are added to the amount of money collected. You can play Strike Solitaire by yourself or with friends. Use two game controllers. Strike Solitaire is a great companion for the holiday!

What's new in Silver Island:

Guild Wars™ can now become a reality! Explore the frozen tundra of Northrend or explore the world of Elona as much as you like, thanks to an update to Guild Wars: Eye of the North®. Play solo with friends with cross-server gameplay and chat, or group up with others from around the globe to fight together and reap the rewards of a shared adventure. Play cooperative rather than competitive, and earn Conflict Insights on top of the rewards you receive in-game. Set up clans, invite friends to trade with you, and edit your profile to suit your play style. Guild Wars: Eye of the North® is now available! Bonewood's End Link Gaining strength with the Northrend expansion to Guild Wars® 2: Heart of Thorns™, Bonewood's End awakens deep from the wilderness and ready to conquer the capital of the Eidolon Kingdom of the great Raven. As temperatures drop and the snow settles, wave your hands through the air, whisper to wild creatures, and ready them to battle. Lay siege to the wide expanses of this snowy area, and call on each of its elements to gather within. Risk your life on the snowy slopes or fight on the rooftops of paradise as winter takes hold in the North. The Northrend PvP Season 1 hour Dueling in the Northwind Featuring new offerings and updates to existing gear, our latest Northwind PvP season introduces new gear for seasoned players and a much larger rewards pool for new and casual players alike. New raids are also available, letting players with a heart of iron enter. As an added bonus, all new characters starting March 26, 2015 from North America and Europe who participate in PvP will receive a free copy of the Northwind unique costume. Clustered servers will be wiped clean with no items, decorations, achievements, pets, or crafts added. Now is a great time to sign up for a PvP account! The Northwind raider and Northwind raid bosses are now obtainable by completing the required achievements on Shattered Defenses, the first quarterly PvP tier. Upon completing all achievements in that tier, all clan tags on all bronze weapons are granted. This award, along with additional awards for the remaining three quarterly PvP tiers, is limited per characters. For new characters created after September 19, 2014 each quarterly PvP tier award is limited to 5 sets, or 3,730 sets for existing characters. Unique rosy
