William Barnes II William J. Barnes II (born July 31, 1944) is an American lawyer and politician from Maine. He served in the Maine House of Representatives from 1983 to 1991 and in the Maine Senate from 1992 to 2010, and was the Republican nominee for Governor of Maine in 2014. He lives in Bowdoinham.

Early life and education Barnes was born in New York City, New York and grew up in Waterford, Connecticut. He is a graduate of the University of Maine School of Law, where he was editor-in-chief of the law review and earned his J.D. degree. He received his B.A. degree in English from the University of Maine in 1964.

Early career Barnes worked as an assistant prosecutor for New York County, and later taught public policy at the University of Maine, where he earned a Ph.D. in political science. He has served as president of the Maine Civil Liberties Union. He was a guest lecturer at the University of New England and was a founding partner of the law firm of Barnes & Barnes.

Political career In 1983, Barnes ran as a Republican for a seat in the Maine House of Representatives and was elected from the District 50A seat. He was re-elected without opposition in 1985, 1987, 1989, 1991, and 1993. In 1990, Barnes ran as a write-in candidate in the Democratic primary for Lieutenant Governor of Maine
