Need For Speed Carbon Reloaded Rar Password

Download

RAR passwords are set by the bootloader. You should look for it on the site you downloaded the game from. If it's not there, chances are you'll never download... (didn't download) a RAR file that has this data. If the game has copy protection, that is, there is no serial number for it, then the RAR password can be set by the user of the game. If you still do not understand how this works, then I will explain. For the game to work, the user must launch it and then enter the password that you see on the screen. Thus, the game is protected from copying. At the same time, if the game has copy protection, then the password must be unique.
