But without wasting your time I am with you and am going to tell you that you can easily download any application for android and also ios devices by using 4shared and Ipodu App store. How is it possible you might ask that is it? Yes using 4shared and ipodu App store, first you need to download these applications on 4shared and then download from there. Well i am not asking you to download these applications from 4shared because I can offer you a really good alternative of these apps and you can get them for free. You can download no survey for android and ios and you don't need to pay anything for that. For using the applications downloaded you need to have a 4shared account and you need to have an ipodu account. If you are a fan of Steve Jobs then this is the right place for you. Steve Jobs was the founder of the iTouch and iPhone. He was also named an iPhone god because of the number of touch devices that he created. And now 4shared has come up with an alternative way for you to enjoy the apps of Steve Jobs. 4shared has a vast collection of applications for android and ios devices by offering them for free. Even the applications that are paid are only $1 for each application so you can enjoy each and every application without having to spend a single penny. Moreover, as I said before you will not even need an ipodu account to download the applications for your devices. You don't need to pay anything for the application because you can get it free. But remember one thing if you are getting these applications free then you need to be the owner of the apps that are downloaded. So just follow the instructions that we have given you in this post and also let us know if you face any problem in using the applications then we will try to solve it but there is a 15 day guarantee for the problems that are with any application. So be as cool as android and use 4shared or ipodu app store to download the apps of Steve Jobs.
