Interactive sections are always appealing to the people who are visiting your webpage, especially if they also integrate high-quality animations or videos. 1stFlip Flipbook Creator Pro can help you design such projects, even if you are not a tech-savvy user. Experiment with the sample file Before plunging in and starting to design your own animated magazines or brochures, you should take the time to explore and experiment with the included sample project. You can customize the logo and the title, as well as replace the background image and apply a different setting or scene (you can try a new one by double-clicking an entry from the dedicated list, then wait until the preview is generated). Customize page turning Moreover, you can enhance your flipping-book with background audio that you can set to autoplay and loop, while also activating page turning sounds or switch to right to left page turns. You can also choose the effect that you like best when it comes to the page turning animation: flip, slide, double page slide, or 3D flip. Multiple screen sizes supported Another handy feature of 1stFlip Flipbook Creator Pro is offering you the possibility to preview your newly created project on various screen sizes. Thus, you can make sure no glitches or errors are triggered when users run it on portable devices ranging from smartphones to tablets. When you are ready to publish your flipping-book, you can export it to HTML, ZIP, APP or EXE, then enter not only the destination folder, but also the project filename and title. ===== Installation and Compatibility ===== You should uninstall the older version first by clicking the "Uninstall" button when you launch the setup program of 1stFlip Flipbook Creator Pro.
