- To listen to a radio station press the SPACEBAR and enter the station's URL in the field. - The radio stations can be listened as streams, too, and will be downloaded when they finish. Vista Social Bar is a social bookmarking web site with integrated services for sharing and collecting bookmarks and hyperlinks. Vista Social Bar is built on the Facebook PHP SDK and Twitter API. It can import your Delicious, StumbleUpon, Digg, and BlinkList bookmarks. Create your own RSS feed using the built-in previewer and exporting tools. Add a headline, a link to your content, and set up the frequency of new content updates (the number of times the new content will show up in your feed). As each new item is added to your feed, it will be added to your Google Reader and Bloglines RSS subscriptions. Linknotes is a popular and free RSS reader written in PHP and JavaScript. It is very easy to use, with basic features such as Bookmarks and Tags. Readers, or other programs, can subscribe to your personal Linknotes account or the community one. JwZoo RSS is a RSS feed reader that looks and works like the iTunes library. You can organize, download, and even create playlists. The plugin has the added benefit of displaying the iTunes Store as well. Similar to Google Reader, Bloglines has a great blog reader and lets you read and share your favorite blogs. Bloglines is also a social network and aggregator. Reviews "The only thing I don't like is that Bloglines does not allow you to add any URL to your blog. It only allows you to add a RSS feed, and I find that to be a very silly restriction. You can't add a YouTube video to your blog? So you can't add a list of your links? I don't get it, but it's still a really good reader."- TheOmega] There is wide variety of modifications available in the treatment of patients with oral cancer. All the available methods are not always successful in patients with advanced lesions. The result of all the available modalities can be improved with optimal treatment and its utilization in the development of new treatment protocols. It is very difficult to make decision of treatment modality alone, but when combined with other established prognostic factors, we can definitely get a better treatment plan for the individual patient. \[[@ref14]\] 2edc1e01e8

This course is for students who already know the English language but are aiming to speak Finnish fluently and who want to improve their vocabulary and learn to master a new language. This course has the advantage of being small so that the students are encouraged to study, learn and practice Finnish daily, with a teacher who is also a native Finnish speaker. All the lessons are carefully chosen, and focus on the elements that are more useful in everyday situations, such as expressions of everyday life and what to say, etc... The first lesson will focus on greetings, on answering questions, on invitations, on simple requests, among other basic things... During the course of the lessons, the students will improve their vocabulary. After each lesson, they will have a summary where they can compare their vocabulary with the lesson's objectives, in order to reinforce their progress. The course follows the grammar tree that you can see in this video: In addition to the grammar, you will learn how to write formal letters and how to write more informal letters.
